

Congress Programme – Wednesday, 22 June 2022

10:00 - 10:15 a.m.	Welcome Hermann Graser, DNV President Henning + Thilo Könicke, Managing Directors of AFAG
Facilitation:	Richard Watzke
10:15 - 11:00 a.m.	Sustainable construction Kathrin Quante, Research and Development, Deutsche Gesellschaft für nachhaltiges Bauen DGNB e.V.
11:00 - 11:30 a.m.	Morning tea
Facilitation:	Reiner Krug
11:30 - 12:15 p.m.	Natural stone in landscape design Landscape architect Franz Reschke, Franz Reschke Landschaftsarchitektur GmbH, Berlin
12:15 - 1:00 p.m.	Natural stone in interior design Dipl.-Ing. (FH) René Pier, freelance interior architect, Stuttgart
13:00 - 1:45 p.m.	Lunch break
1:45 - 2:30 p.m.	Sustainable facade constructions using natural stone Dipl.-Ing. (FH) Reiner Krug, DNV, Würzburg
2:30 - 3:15 p.m.	The future of natural stone – benefits of sustainable natural stone construction methods Dipl.-Ing. Philipp Hofmann, Managing Director, Hofmann Fassaden, Würzburg
3:15 - 3:45 p.m.	Afternoon tea
3:45 - 4:30 p.m.	The future of natural stone – contemporary applications of a traditional building material Prof. Ansgar Schulz, Architect BDA DWB, Schulz and Schulz Architects, Leipzig
4:30 - 6:00 p.m.	Presentation of the German Natural Stone Award 2022 Moderation: Richard Watzke

Congress Programme – Thursday, 23 June 2022

10:00 - 10:15 a.m.	Welcome Hermann Graser, DNV President; Henning + Thilo Könicke, Managing Directors of AFAG; Dr. Sven Bittner, State Office for the Preservation of Monuments
Facilitation:	Richard Watzke
10:15 - 11:00 a.m.	Building with natural stone – solid building components Dipl.-Ing. (FH) Reiner Krug, DNV, Würzburg
11:00 - 11:15 a.m.	Morning tea
Facilitation:	Dr Sven Bittner, State Office for the Preservation of Monuments, Munich
11:15 - 12:00 noon	Splendour and colourful diversity – the cultural geology of decorative stones from baroque castles and churches in West Bohemia and Upper Franconia Dr. Gerhard Lehrberger, TU Munich
12:00 - 1:00 p.m.	Lunch break
1:00 - 1:45 p.m.	The country needs old stone – replacement material for important Bavarian monuments from abandoned quarries Dr Klaus Poschlod, Bavarian State Office for the Environment, Economic Geology and Raw Materials, Augsburg
1:45 - 2:30 p.m.	Of evil stones – report on the conservation concept for the Zeppelin Stand, Nuremberg Dipl.-Ing. (FH) Johannes Fritsch, architect, Fritsch, Knodt, Klug + Partner architectural firm, Nuremberg
2:30 - 3:00 p.m.	Afternoon tea
3:00 - 4:30 p.m.	Sustainable planning concepts for sacred buildings – monitoring, investigation and conservation concepts depending on use and location Marisia Conn, Claus Giersch, Anna Kromas, Conn + Giersch architectural firm, Fürth
4:30 - 6:00 p.m.	Excursion to Zeppelin Stand / Golden Hall Dipl.Ing. (FH) Johannes Fritsch, architect, executive architect Robert Minge, City of Nuremberg, Building Construction Office coordinator

Congress Programme – Friday, 24 June 2022

“Space for mourning” in municipal development – perspectives and opportunities for the cemetery Ernst Strassacker GmbH & Co. KG, Kunstgiesserei, Süssen; Federal Association of German Stonemasons, Frankfurt; Verband für Gedenkkultur e. V., Darmstadt
Facilitation:	Bärbel Holländer, Editor-in-chief NATURSTEIN & Sybille Trawinski, Federal Association of German Stonemasons
10:00 - 10:15 a.m.	Welcome Hermann Rudolph, Head of AK Friedhof & Grabmal in the Federal Association of German Stonemasons
10:15 - 11:00 a.m.	Keynote: “Eight theses on the culture of mourning and its significance for municipal development” Matthias Horx, Founder of the Zukunftsinstitut, Frankfurt/Main
11:00 - 12:00 a.m.	Presentation of the initiative “Space for Mourning – Rethinking the Cemetery” • significance for municipal development and urban planning • significance for the industries involved • significance for the stonemasonry industry Günter Czasny, initiator of various projects for future-oriented cemetery development, author, Acting Managing Director of the Kunstgießerei Strassacker, Süssen.
12:00 - 12:45 p.m.	Lunch break
12:45 - 1:30 p.m.	Architectural dimensions of the project “Space for Mourning – Rethinking the Cemetery” Beate Hølmekbakk, manthey kula architectural firm, Oslo
1:30 - 2:15 p.m.	Architecture and culture – Field reports from municipalities, cemetery administrations, churches, trades and associations Facilitation: Bärbel Holländer and Sybille Trawinski
2:15 - 3:00 p.m.	Plea for a successful farewell and mourning culture Dr. Pörschmann, Managing Director of the Arbeitsgemeinschaft Friedhof und Denkmal e.V. and Director of the Museum für Sepulkralkultur in Kassel

Subject to change and errors.