„We are all back and happy to be together again. There were far more people there than we expected. The event gives us encouragement as an industry on how to move forward and what's to come.“

Franziska Petri, Managing Director, J. König GmbH & Co

„There are a lot of innovative things to see at the trade fair, which I experience in a completely new way, despite my many years of experience in the trade. You can look at a lot on the Internet, but that doesn't help in the long run. You also have direct contact with suppliers again at the fair and can discuss something in person.“

Markus Steininger, President, BIV Bundesverband Deutscher Steinmetze
